Traveler Disclosure and Attestation to the United States of America

I have read the following disclosure pertaining to not having been present in the Democratic Republic of the Congo in the past 21 days. Presence in the Democratic Republic of the Congo means any physical presence, including entering or traveling through the country by air (excluding overflights), land, or sea. Presence also includes connecting through an airport in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, even if the traveler did not disembark the plane or leave the airport.

Check exactly one of the options below.

☐ [Self-Attestation] I attest that I have not been present in the Democratic Republic of the Congo in the past 21 days prior to boarding a flight to the United States.

☐ [Proxy Attestation] On behalf of the passenger named above, , for whom I am authorized to act, I attest that such person has not been present in the Democratic Republic of the Congo in the past 21 days preceding boarding a flight to the United States.

Proxy Name: _____

Airline or aircraft operator personnel may assist with data entry but do not attest on behalf of the Attestee.

I attest that I have responded truthfully and understand that willfully providing false or misleading information may lead to criminal fines and imprisonment under 18 U.S.C. § 1001, and that I may be subject to criminal penalties under 42 U.S.C. § 271 and 42 C.F.R. §71.2, in conjunction with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3559 and 3571 for failure to comply with these requirements.

CDC PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) requires airlines and other aircraft operators to collect this information pursuant to 42 C.F.R. §§ 71.20 and 71.31(b), as authorized by 42 U.S.C. § 264. Providing this information is mandatory for all persons arriving by aircraft into the United States. Failure to provide this information may prevent you from boarding the plane. CDC may use this information to help prevent the introduction, transmission, and spread of communicable diseases by performing contact tracing investigations, notifying exposed individuals and public health authorities, and other appropriate public health interventions, including the implementation of travel restrictions.

The Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, governs the collection and use of this information. The information maintained by CDC will be covered by CDC's System of Records No. 09-20-0171, Quarantine- and Traveler-Related Activities, Including Records for Contact Tracing Investigation and Notification under 42 C.F.R. Parts 70 and 71. See 72 Fed. Reg. 70867 (Dec. 13, 2007), as amended by 76 Fed. Reg. 4485 (Jan. 25, 2011) and 83 Fed. Reg. 6591 (Feb. 14, 2018). CDC will only disclose information from the system outside the CDC and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services as the Privacy Act permits, including in accordance with the routine uses published for this system in the Federal Register, and as authorized by law. Such lawful purposes may include, but are not limited to, sharing identifiable information with state and local public health departments, and other cooperating authorities. CDC and cooperating authorities will retain, use, delete, or otherwise destroy the designated information in accordance with federal law and the System of Records Notice (SORN) set forth above. You may contact the system manager at dgmhpolicyoffice@cdc.gov or by mailing Policy Office, Division of Global Migration Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1600 Clifton Road NE, MS H16-4, Atlanta, GA 30329, if you have questions about CDC's use of your data.

Privacy Policy

Pursuant to the Order of the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), all passengers boarding aircraft destined for the United States must attest that they have not been present in, visited, or transited through an airport in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) in the past 21 days prior to embarkation. Korean Air verifies and retains this information, and submits it to the U.S. Government only upon lawful request. Please review and consent to each of the three (3) personal information consent items below.

1. Consent to Collection and Use of Personal Information [Required]

A. Purpose of Collection and Use
- Compliance with U.S. CDC attestation requirements concerning Ebola for passengers on U.S.-bound flights
- Attestation regarding whether the passenger has visited, stayed in, or transited through the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) in the past 21 days, and verification of boarding eligibility for U.S.-bound flights
- Electronic completion, retention, and management of the attestation for
- Submission of the attestation form and performance of related administrative duties upon lawful request from competent U.S. government authorities, such as the U.S. CDC

B. Items of Personal Information Collected and Used
- Passenger name, details and verification results of the attestation stating that the passenger has not been present in, visited, or transited through the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) in the past 21 days, date of attestation, electronic signature or electronic confirmation record, representative's name and proxy status in the case of proxy completion, booking reference (PNR), flight number, departure and destination, and date of travel required to identify and link the attestation with the passenger

C. Retention and Use Period of Personal Information
- Retained for fifty (50) days from the flight departure date and disposed of without delay thereafter.
- Provided, however, that if an obligation to retain records arises under relevant laws or if there are legitimate grounds for additional retention, such information may be retained separately solely for the applicable purposes and periods.

D. Right to Refuse Consent and Consequences of Refusal
- You have the right to refuse consent to the collection and use of personal information; however, if you refuse consent, boarding on U.S.-bound flights will not be permitted.

☐ I agree to the collection and use of personal information above.

2. Consent to Third-Party Disclosure of Personal Information [Required]

In accordance with U.S. CDC requirements concerning passenger attestations for U.S.-bound flights, Korean Air provides personal information as follows upon lawful request from competent U.S. government authorities, including the CDC.

A. Recipient of Personal Information
- U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)

B. Purpose of Use by the Recipient
- Verification of compliance with U.S. CDC passenger attestation requirements for U.S.-bound flights regarding Ebola
- Public health interventions, including contact tracing investigations, notifications to exposed individuals and public health authorities, and travel restrictions, to prevent the introduction, transmission, and spread of communicable diseases such as Ebola virus

C. Items of Personal Information Disclosed
- Passenger name, details and verification results of the attestation stating that the passenger has not been present in, visited, or transited through the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) in the past 21 days, date of attestation, electronic signature or electronic confirmation record, representative's name and proxy status in the case of proxy completion, booking reference (PNR), flight number, departure and destination, and date of travel required to identify the subject passenger

D. Retention and Use Period by the Recipient
- Retention period pursuant to U.S. federal laws and U.S. Government regulations

E. Timing and Method of Provision
- Korean Air does not provide the attestation to the CDC immediately upon completion; it will be submitted in electronic form or hard copy only upon receipt of a lawful request from competent U.S. government authorities, including the CDC.

F. Right to Refuse Consent and Consequences of Refusal
- You have the right to refuse consent to the third-party disclosure of personal information. You may refuse consent by not checking this consent box; however, in this case, boarding on U.S.-bound flights will not be permitted.

☐ I agree to the third-party disclosure of personal information above.

3. Consent to Overseas Transfer of Personal Information [Required]

In accordance with U.S. CDC requirements concerning passenger attestations for U.S.-bound flights, Korean Air transfers personal information overseas as follows upon lawful request.

A. Items of Personal Information Transferred Overseas
- Passenger name, details and verification results of the attestation stating that the passenger has not been present in, visited, or transited through the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) in the past 21 days, date of attestation, electronic signature or electronic confirmation record, representative's name and proxy status in the case of proxy completion, booking reference (PNR), flight number, departure and destination, and date of travel required to identify the subject passenger

B. Destination Country
- United States of America (USA)

C. Timing and Method of Transfer
- Timing of Transfer: Upon receipt of a request for submission of the attestation from competent U.S. government authorities, including the U.S. CDC
- Method of Transfer: Electronic transmission using secure transmission methods designated by the CDC or submission of hard copy

D. Recipient and Contact Information
- Recipient: U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)
- Email: dgmhpolicyoffice@cdc.gov
- Address: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1600 Clifton Road NE, Atlanta, GA 30329, USA

E. Purpose of Use by the Recipient
- Verification of compliance with U.S. CDC passenger attestation requirements for U.S.-bound flights regarding Ebola
- Public health interventions, including contact tracing investigations, notifications to exposed individuals and public health authorities, and travel restrictions, to prevent the introduction, transmission, and spread of communicable diseases such as Ebola virus

F. Retention and Use Period by the Recipient
- Retention period pursuant to U.S. federal laws and U.S. Government regulations

G. Method/Procedure for Refusing Overseas Transfer and Consequences of Refusal
- You have the right to refuse consent to the overseas transfer of personal information; however, if you refuse consent, boarding on U.S.-bound flights will not be permitted.

☐ I agree to the overseas transfer of personal information above.

Passenger Name: _____ Phone Number (Mobile): _____ Email: _____

Flight Number: _____ Date: _____

Departure: _____ Arrival: _____

Date: _____ Signature(Proxy): _____